With one exception, these have regularly been considered as most appropriately staffed by officers at the GS-14 level. By and large choices will be made from among officers of that grade, but not necessarily exclusively so. The overriding consideration will be how best to use the professional resources we have, while keeping an eye to the development of leaders to meet FBIS' future needs.

If you would like to be considered for assignment to any of the above, please indicate your first five choices (including retention in present posting).

If you would rather be assigned to or retained at Headquarters, let me know your preference, including interest in a rotational tour elsewhere in the Agency or in special training assignments.

Sincerely,

Director
